Mr. Willis I. Morris was visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. Phillip Newton, of this city, last week, and during his stay lost a leather pocketbook containing some valuable papers. He did not, however, discover this until his arrival in Pittsburg, when he wired Mr. Newton to this effect, and asked him to advertise for him. The above reproduced ad. appeared in The Times Tuesday evening. The first edition of this paper was on the streets at 2 o'clock. At eight minutes after 2 Mr. Newton received a phone message from a young lady who had found the pocketbook, and it was returned to him immediately.
